

Non-profit Use License Agreement

This Agreement is to be held between the Authors of the CompHEP program and a Party which acquires the program. On acquiring the program the Party agrees to be bound by terms of this agreement.

1. This Licence entitles the Licensee (one person) and the Licensee's research group to obtain a copy of the source or executable code of CompHEP and/or interfaces of CompHEP to other Monte-Carlo generators and to use the acquired program for academic research or other non-profit purposes within a research group; or, it entitles the Licensee (a company, organisation or computing center) to install the program and allow an access to the executable code to the members of the Licensee for academic research or other non-profit use. No user or site will re-distribute the source code or executable code to a third party in the original or modified form without a written permission of the Authors.
2. Publications which result from using the program will contain references to the articles describing CompHEP. See the necessary references on the WWW page or on <http://comphep.sinp.msu.ru>
3. This Licence does not permit any commercial (profit-making or proprietary) use or re-licensing or re-distributions. Persons interested in a for-profit use should contact the Authors.
4. The Authors of CompHEP do not guarantee that the program is free of errors or meets its specification and cannot be held responsible for loss or consequential damage as a result of using it.
